DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election without traverse of group I in filed 10/566709 is acknowledged.

Claim 39 is withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

Election was made without traverse filed on 10/9/2007. Claims (1-38, 40-49) are pending and an action on the merits is as follows.

Acknowledgment is made of applicant's claim for foreign priority based on an application filed in (France) on (10/22/2004). It is noted, however, that applicant has not filed a certified copy of the (Japanese) application as required by 35 U.S.C. 119(b). In order to fully meet the requirements of 119(b) a translation of the foreign priority document is required.
MPEP 2304.01(c)

Should applicant desire to obtain the benefit of foreign priority under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d) prior to declaration of an interference, a certified English translation of the foreign application must be submitted in reply to this action, 37 CFR 41.154(b) and 41.202(e). Failure to provide a certified translation may result in no benefit being accorded for the non-English application.

Drawings

1. New corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in this application because FIG. 3 is too small to use as reference. Applicant is advised to employ the services of a competent patent draftsman outside the Office, as the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office no longer prepares new drawings. The corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The requirement for corrected drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Objections

2. Claims 5-14, 19-38, 40-41, 44-45, 48-49 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c) as being in improper form because a multiple dependent claims. See MPEP § 608.01(n). Accordingly, the claims 5-14, 19-41, 44-45, 48-49 not been further treated on the merits.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Regarding claims 40-41, the phrase "for example" renders the claim indefinite because it is unclear whether the limitation(s) following the phrase are part of the claimed invention. See MPEP § 2173.05(d).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless —(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

6. Claims 1-4, 15-18, 42-43, 46-47 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by Sheynblat (2005/0192024).

Regarding claims 1, 15, Sheynblat discloses a system and method of determining the position of a mobile terminal by use of satellite and assistance server (location server, article 140 in FIG. 1 below). A satellite positioning system uses pseudo-random codes (PN) by correlating received PN and replica signal stored in terminal for acquiring satellite signal. Assistance data is transmitted to terminal to help estimating position, estimated distances (PR_1 , PR_2 , and PR_3) and inherently provides Doppler effects information. Maximum correlation is selected in order to determine PN codes and demodulate the received signal.

Regarding claims 2, 16, Sheynblat discloses assistance server (location server) is connected to said terminal via cellular communication network through BTS (base station) (see FIG. 1 above).

Regarding claims 3, 17, Sheynblat discloses assistance data is transmitted to said terminal via cellular communication network (see FIG. 1 above).

Regarding claims 4, 18, Sheynblat discloses approximate position represent the cell in which the terminal is situated when it requests said assistance data. A cellular device can only communicate and receive assistance data via BTS with its associated cell. No communication can be established between a terminal and a non-serving cell.

Regarding claim 42, Sheynblat discloses satellite signal is used, it inherently means L band signals (L1/L2) is used (paragraph 0005 & 0007).

Regarding claim 43, Sheynblat discloses (paragraph 0005 & 0007) W-CDMA technique is considered.

Regarding claims 46-47, Sheynblat discloses GPS system (paragraph 0005) which is RNSS type networks.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. Claims 1-4, 15-18, 42-43, 46-47 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Sheynblat (2005/0192024).

Regarding claims 1, 15, even if Sheynblat does not inherently disclose Doppler effect information from server. It would have been obvious that location server is designed to help terminal in fast acquisition of satellite by providing in view satellites and ephemeris data.

Regarding claims 2, 16, Sheynblat discloses assistance server (location server) is connected to said terminal via cellular communication network through BTS (base station) (see FIG. 1 above).

Regarding claims 3, 17, Sheynblat discloses assistance data is transmitted to said terminal via cellular communication network (see FIG. 1 above).

Regarding claims 4, 18, Sheynblat discloses approximate position represent the cell in which the terminal is situated when it requests said assistance data. A cellular device can only communicate and receive assistance data via BTS with its associated cell. No communication can be established between a terminal and a non-serving cell.

Regarding claim 42, Sheynblat discloses satellite signal is used, it inherently means L band signals (L1/L2) is used (paragraph 0005 & 0007).

Regarding claim 43, Sheynblat discloses (paragraph 0005 & 0007) W-CDMA technique is considered.

Regarding claims 46-47, Sheynblat discloses GPS system (paragraph 0005) which is RNSS type networks.
